

 A STUDY ON ISSUE RETURN OF MEDICINES AND CONSUMABLES FROM NURSE STATION TO PHARMACY DEPARTMENT
ABOUT COLUMBIA ASIA Columbia Asia is the chain of hospitals in Asia, with medical facilities across India, Malaysia, Vietnam, Indonesia. The first hospital in India commenced operations in 2005 in Hebbal-Bangluru and currently Columbia Asia operates eleven facilities Columbia Asia Pune is a 100 bedded multi specialty hospital Adhering to NABH and NABL standards	OBJECTIVES To analyze the quantity & areas of issue return in the hospital To identify the underlying causes To provide suggestions to reduce issue return of medicines and consumables
RESEARCH METHODOLOGY
Study Design Observational and Descriptive study Inclusion Criteria All IPD (In patient department), emergency, OT, ICU, NICU, Labour ward patients’ prescriptions were included Exclusion Criteria All OPD (Out patient department) patients’ prescriptions Study Area Pharmacy department at Columbia Asia Hospital, Pune	Time Duration of Study 4th April - 31st May, 2016 Source of Data Primary and Secondary data Primary data includes:- Direct observations Interaction with both the nursing staff and pharmacy staff Secondary data includes:- Required data was extracted from care21 system

FINDINGS
Proportion of the issue return of medicine and medical supplies:- 	Sum of quantity returned from individual departments:-
Quantity ordered v/s quantity returned from individual departments:- 	Sum of the returned quantities of individual items:-
REASONS OF HIGH ISSUE RETURN 	RECOMMENDATIONS
PRESENTED BY:- CHANDNI KUMAWAT, ROLL NO.-0269 (MBA-HM 20, IIHMR University)	